His Majesty King Charles the II. directs this Commission to Richard Lord Viscount Ranelagh, and eight other principal Commissioners; and in their respective absence to nine others.

*Recital of a Grant (to Richard Lord Viscount Ranelagh,
and eight others,
of all His Majesty's Revenue
in Ireland) Dated, August 4.
1673.*

Greeting. WHEREAS, by an Indenture, bearing date the fourth day of August last past, before the date of these presents, and made between Our Self of the one part, and you the said Richard Lord Viscount Ranelagh, Sir Alexander Bence, Sir James Hayes, John Bence, George Dashwood, Joseph Dean, Robert Huntingdon, John Stepney, and Richard Kingdon of the other part; We were Graciously pleased amongst other things, to Covenant, Grant, and Agree to and with you the said Richard Lord Visc. Ranelagh, Sir Alexander Bence, Sir James Hayes, John Bence, George Dashwood, Joseph Dean, Robert Huntingdon, John Stepney, and Rich. Kingdon, and every of you, you and every of your Heirs, Executors and Administrators, that there should be from time to time, during the term in the said Indenture mentioned, such and so many Commissions issued out under Our Great Seal of England, and directed to you the said Richard Lord Viscount Ranelagh, Sir Alexander Bence, Sir James Hayes, John Bence, George Dashwood, Joseph Dean, Robert Huntingdon, John Stepney, and Richard Kingdon; the survivors, or survivor of you; or the Executors, or Administrators of the survivor of you, or such other discreet, able, and fit Persons, as you shall humbly desire (which Commissions so to be issued out, should sufficiently authorize and impower the Persons therein to be named, to act as our Officers) as should be found necessary to be done in the managing of, and for the better and more speedy Levying, Collecting, Sueing for, Recovering and Receiving, or otherwise Compounding for, and Discharging of all and every our Rents, Revenues, Profits, Duties, Incomes, certain and casual, ordinary and extraordinary whatsoever, in the Kingdom of Ireland (not remitted or pardoned, or otherwise before the Five and twentieth day of December then last past, granted away and disposed) as well such, as upon, or before the Five and twentieth day of December then last past, were in arrear, and were then unpaid, as such as from and after the said time, until the six and twentieth day of December, which should be in the year of our Lord One thousand six hundred seventy and five, were, or should be, by any matter of Record or otherwise howsoever, due, owing, or payable to us, or which might, or ought to have been, or may, before the said Six and twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord One thousand six hundred seventy and five, be Taxed, Levied, Collected, Recovered, Answered for, paid or payable to us, our Heirs or Successors, out of or for any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in Ireland, or all or any the Estates Real or Personal, of any Person or Persons, Bodies Politique or Corporate, or otherwise, by reason of any Tax, Assessment, Subsidy, Impositions, Contract, Covenant, Agreement, Accompt, Debt, Duty, sum or sums of Money, matter or thing imposed or made, or issued, or which did or should arise, or grow due within the said Kingdom of Ireland, before the said six and twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred seventy and five, including the Rents, Duties, and Payments, which should be due for the time incurred before the said six and twentieth day of December, One thousand six hundred seventy and five, though the same may be payable, or Instalments made, or time given for the payment thereof, after that day; and that all and every the sums of Money then due, or which at any time after the date of the said Indenture, and before the six and twentieth day of December in the year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred seventy five, should grow due or payable to us, Our Heirs or Successors, whether for Rent reserved upon the Farm of the great Branches of Our Revenue in Ireland, or for Arrears, or otherwise howsoever, should from time to time during the term in the said Indenture mentioned, answered, and brought into Our Receipt of Exchequer at Dublin, in such manner as the same had been before that time used to be paid, and would and ought to have been paid, if the said Indenture had not been made, to the end, that our Treasure so brought in, and remaining in Our Exchequer there, might from time to time be issued out from thence, and applyed to such Uses, Intents and Purposes, as in the said Indenture are mentioned, and thereby are undertaken to be done and performed; and that for the better effecting thereof, and more orderly and legal proceeding therein, We would forthwith in due form of Law, Constitute, Authorize, Commissionate and Appoint, the said Richard Lord Viscount Ranelagh, Sir Alexander Bence, Sir James Hayes, John Bence, and George Dashwood, to be our Officers or Commissioners, and to have the sole care and custody of all Moneys so brought in, and the sole power to receive the said Moneys from time to time, and give Acquittances and Discharges for the same, and to issue out the said Moneys, and pay the same to the ends and uses in the said Indenture mentioned, with such Clauses to be inserted in such Commission as may be sufficient totally to prohibit and restrain any other Person or Persons, from acting, or any way intermeddling therein, upon any other pretence of authority whatsoever, during the continuance of the said Undertaking in the said Indenture mentioned.

His Majesty by the said Grant, did covenant to appoint the said Rich. Lord Visc. Ranelagh, Sir Alex. Bence, Sir James Hayes, John Bence, and George Dashwood, to Receive and Issue His Majesties Revenue.

AND We were further Graciously pleased, by the said Indenture, to Covenant and Agree, to and with you the said Richard Lord Viscount Ranelagh, Sir Alexander Bence, Sir James Hayes, John Bence, and George Dashwood, that all Orders, Warrants, Directions, and Commands, which at any time after the date of the said Indenture, and before the six and twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord One thousand six hundred seventy and five, should be made and signed, touching or concerning the issuing out of any moneys for paying any part of Our said Revenue, should be so made and signed by the Lord Lieutenant or other chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, and be directed to you the said Richard Lord Viscount Ranelagh, Sir Alexander Bence, Sir James Hayes, John Bence, and George Dashwood onely, to the intent intent that you the said Richard Lord Visc. Ranelagh, Sir Alexander Bence, Sir James Hayes, John Bence, and George Dashwood, might wholly apply the said Moneys to the uses and intents of the said Indenture, and to the execution and performance of the undertaking in the said Indenture mentioned, as in and by the said Indenture, amongst divers other Covenants, Clauses, and Agreements therein contained, may more plainly appear.

AND, whereas you the said Richard Lord Viscount Ranelagh, Sir Alexander Bence, Sir James Hayes, John Bence, George Dashwood, Joseph Dean, Robert Huntingdon, John Stepney, and Richard Kingdon, have since humbly besought us, that you the said Richard Lord Viscount Ranelagh, and in your absence the said Robert Sands, Sir Alexander Bence, and in your absence the said Thomas Tayler, Sir James Hayes, and in your absence the said John Hayes, John Bence, and in your absence the said Thomas Scarth, George Dashwood, and in your absence the said Edward Roberts, Joseph Dean, and in your absence the said Joseph Dean the younger, Robert Huntingdon, and in your absence the said Griffith Bodurda, John Stepney, and in your absence the said Lancelott Stepney, and Richard Kingdon, and in your absence, the said John Winkworth, should have all and every the Powers and Authorities by us Covenanted in and by the said Indenture, to be by us granted unto you the said Richard Lord Viscount Ranelagh, Sir Alexander Bence, Sir James Hayes, John Bence, and George Dashwood.

NOW therefore Know ye, That We reposing especial Trust and Confidence in your Abilities, Fidelity, and prudent Circumspection, HAVE Nominated, Constituted and Appointed, and by these Presents do Nominate, Constitute, and Appoint you the said Richard Lord Viscount Ranelagh, and in your absence, you the said Robert Sands, Sir Alexander Bence; and in your absence, you the said Thomas Tayler, Sir James Hayes; and in your absence, you the said John Hayes, John Bence, Lord Viscount Ranelagh and his Partners have humbly besought His Majesty to appoint all the said partners, and in their respective absence, nine other persons to be Commissioners of the Treasury and Revenue.

The Body of the Commission whereby all the nine Partners, and nine others in their respective absence are appointed Commissioners

Bence; and in your absence you the said Thomas Scarth, George Dashwood; and in your absence you the said Ed- ward Roberts, Joseph Dean; and in your absence, you the said Joseph Dean the younger; Robert Huntingdon; and in your absence, you the said Griffith Bodurda, John Stepney; and in your absence, you the said Lancelot Stepney, and Richard Kingdon; and in your absence, you the said John Winkworth, to be Our Commissioners *Power given to the Commissioners, and every of them or those im-

ployed by them,
to view, search,
examine, and take Copies of any Records or Writings concerning the premises, without paying of any Fee for the same.*

accordingly: GIVING, and by these Presents Granting unto you, and every of you, and to all and every other Person and Persons employed by you, or any of you, full power and authority, at all convenient times, and in orderly manner, to view, inspect, search and examine, all Rolls, Records, Books, Accompts, Papers, and other Memorials whatsoever, remaining in Our Courts of Exchequer, or in any other Our Courts of Record, or in the Clerks of our respective Councils custody, or in any other place, or in the hands of any other Person belonging to us within Our Realm of England, or Our said Kingdom of Ireland, touching or concerning the premises, and which may any ways conduce to the finding out of all such Rents, and other the Premises, as shall be due, owing, and unpaid, as aforesaid, and to take Copies of the same or any of them, the said Copies to be made by the respective Officers or Persons in whose custody the same do or shall remain, or by their Clerks or Servants, without any Fee, or other charge to be paid for the same. AND further, We

*Power to five or more of the Commissioners to meet and call before them such Persons as they shall judge requisite
for the discovery
and finding out,
and recovering of the premises, and any Writing or evidence belonging to His Majesty concerning the same, and to examine him or them touching the same.*

do hereby Give and Grant unto you Our said Commissioners hereby appointed, or any five or more of you, at such convenient times and places as you shall think fit and appoint, full power and authority to meet together, and to call before you all or any such Person or Persons, as you shall judge requisite or necessary, in relation to, or concerning the discovery and finding out and recovering of the Premises, or any of them, so due and unpaid as aforesaid, and any Writing or Evidence belonging to Us concerning the same, and to examine him,

him, them, or any of them, touching or concerning the same, and to enquire, and cause to be enquired by the Oaths of good and lawful Men, or by any other lawful ways or means, by which the truth may be best discovered and known, as well by examining Witnesses upon Oath as otherwise. And if after such search and examination made, it shall happen, that any Person or Persons who shall be found in Arrear, and Indebted unto Us in any sum or sums of Money, for any the Rents, Revenues, and Profits, or other the Premises before mentioned, shall desire to defend him or themselves by Law against the Debts and Duties so found to be owing, and then and there demanded of him, rather than submit to the payment thereof, or give security for payment of the same by such instalments as shall be offered to him or them; then, and in such case, Our Will and Pleasure is, that you forthwith Transmit and Certify the name or names of such Person or Persons not submitting to such payment, or giving security as aforesaid, into the Court of Our Exchequer at Dublin, and that you cause him or them to be effectually proceeded against according to Law: And to the end Our Will and Pleasure may be the better performed and accomplished, and the Money so due and in Arrear, may the more speedily and effectually be Recovered, Levied, and paid as aforesaid, OUR FURTHER Will and Pleasure is, and We do hereby Authorize, Command, and Require Our Lord Lieutenant, Justices, or chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, Our Treasurer, Chancellor, and Barons of Our Court of Exchequer there, for the time being, and all others whom it shall or may concern, that they and every of them during the continuance of this Our Commission in force, at the desire and request of you Our said Commissioners or any of you, do award, make, and deliver unto you or any of you, without charge or Fee, all and every such Commission and Commissions of Enquiry, Writ

To enquire by the oaths of good and lawful men, or by other lawful means, as well by examining witnesses upon oath, as otherwise, whereby the truth may be best discovered.

If after search or examination any person be found in Arrear, and indebted unto His Majesty, and shall desire to defend himself by Law, rather than submit to, or give security for the payment thereof, by Installments, to certify the same into the Exchequer, and to cause them to be effectually proceeded against according to Law.

The chief Governor of Ireland, and others whom it may concern; are in His Majesties name, at the request of the Commissioners, to issue Commissions Writs and Processes (without any Fee) for recovery and bringing in of His Majesties Revenue and Debts, according to the course of the Exchequer, wherein all His Majesties Officers and Ministers are to be aiding and assisting.
